Message from the Chair

Dear NEMLA members:

It was a pleasure to see so many of you at our fabulous fall meeting celebrating NEMLA’s 50th anniversary. The Boston Athenaeum is a real treasure trove in the city of Boston, and some of you may not be aware that nearly all the expenses of this meeting were covered by the Athenaeum. We are very grateful to the staff of the Athenaeum for lending us the use of their space and for their hospitality. Many of our NEMLA members worked hard to make this meeting a success, and I extend my sincere thanks to Program Chair Kerry Masteller and Program Committee members Pat Fisken, Maria Jane Loizou, and Ilana Revkin for all their work and planning. I would also like to thank NEMLA’s Board for their ideas with planning, Zoë Rath for creating the online invitations, taking all the great pictures, and editing the video, Zoë Rath and Sofía Becerra-Licha for creating the wonderful slideshow of past NEMLA members, and Sarah Funke Donovan for helping with the invitations and all things pertaining to registration. Many thanks to our panelists Joe Boonin, Jean Morrow, Linda Solow Blotner, Gerry Ostrove, and to Margaret Ericson for serving as the moderator. We appreciate your willingness to travel and participate in our meeting. You will find a meeting report in this newsletter issue from interim Member-At-Large, Maria Jane Loizou, detailing events about the anniversary meeting.

And while I’m expressing my gratitude, many thanks go to Maria Jane Loizou for stepping in to serve as our interim Member-At-Large while we wait to elect a new officer.

Our next chapter meeting will be held on Friday, March 28, 2014 at Brown University. Thanks to our host, Laura Stokes! A meeting preview is found in this issue and more details will be forthcoming.

The NEMLA Board has proposed some revisions of the Bylaws to define term limits of committee members and correct a few minor details. They are included in this issue for your review and will be sent out again before the spring meeting. During the business meeting we will discuss the revisions and vote on the changes.

For those of you planning to attend MLA in Atlanta this February, be on the lookout for details regarding our usual dinner gathering. We’ll most likely meet on Thursday night, February 27. I hope to see many of you in Atlanta and at Brown University for our spring meeting in March. Best wishes for the holidays and New Year!

Respectfully submitted,

As you may have noticed, the costs for our 50th Anniversary Meeting were very minimal, in large part due to the generosity of the Boston Athenaeum. Not only did they provide their beautiful space for the meeting, but they also donated the refreshments. Many thanks to the Boston Athenaeum!

Another note regarding the financial report: last year, NEMLA received a $600 chapter grant to send a board member to an MLA pre-conference workshop. However, since the workshop was unfortunately canceled, the board decided the best course of action was to return the check to MLA.

Finally, I would like to thank my predecessor Christina Linklater, who served as the interim Secretary/Treasurer from November 2012 through May 2013, following Jonathan Manton’s relocation to Stanford University. Many thanks to Christina Linklater for stepping in and bridging the gap between Secretary/Treasurer terms!

Please feel free to contact me if you would like to know your membership status, or if you have comments or suggestions on any other matter relating to the Chapter's finances and records.

Best wishes,

Coordinators shall be appointed for an initial term of two years, with the possibility of reappointment for no more than one succeeding term. Normally there are no other officers and no specified membership.

- Authorization: the NEMLA Chair may authorize the establishment of a roundtable for a period of four years after receiving letters of support from three members of the Chapter identifying a common area of concern. Renewal of the authorization for an additional four-year period requires two letters of support. The letters are due to the Chair by Aug. 31 of the year of expiration. Roundtable authorizations expire Dec. 31. A roundtable may be dissolved by the Chair if it appears that it no longer serves a need or that its work could be carried on more effectively by a committee of the Chapter. If a roundtable fails to have a minimum attendance of four participants for two consecutive years, that roundtable shall be retired.

- Activities: All roundtables hold two meetings a year convened by the Coordinator during the semi-annual meetings of the chapter. Roundtable meetings and other roundtable activities may be announced in the NEMLA newsletter and listed in the programs of the semi-annual meeting. Roundtables are encouraged to participate in developing programs for NEMLA meetings.

- Proposed amendments shall be submitted to the Executive Board for consideration at least eight weeks before the meeting of the Chapter at which it is requested that the proposal be presented.
- Upon approval by the Executive Board texts of the proposed amendments shall be distributed to Chapter members at least four weeks before presentation for discussion at the meeting.
- Ballots and texts as revised at the meeting shall be distributed to Chapter members in a timely manner, generally in the next issue of the chapter newsletter. Ballots will be collected online and collated by the Secretary/Treasurer.

Fall Meeting Minutes

NEMLA Fall Meeting-50th anniversary
Boston Athenaeum
10½ Beacon Street, Boston, MA 02108
Meeting Minutes

Friday, October 4, 2013

The NEMLA Fall Meeting was called to order at 10am by Jennifer Hunt (Boston Conservatory), NEMLA Chair. She thanked the Boston Athenaeum and their wonderful staff for supporting our 50th anniversary celebration. A special note was made that Paula Matthews, retired, had really transformed the Athenaeum over the past 5 years, most particularly with the digitization of their special collections. The Boston Athenaeum remains a private membership library. Kerry Carwile Masteller, Vice-Chair/Chair-Elect continued the thanks to the Program Board and the endlessly helpful Athenaeum staff. Pat Fisken read aloud the minutes of the first NEMLA meeting in 1963 as a segue to the morning session.

“NEMLA at 50” was the theme of the morning session, and was divided into three parts. First, Margaret Ericson (Colby) moderated a panel charged with reflecting on “NEMLA, Then and Now”. Jean Morrow (New England Conservatory) opened with a “NEMLA 50th Anniversary Quiz: Test Your Historical Knowledge.” Most notable in her mind was the substantial reduction of music collections in public libraries over the past 50 years throughout New England. Linda Blotner (retired) noted the continuing need for patrons to learn critical thinking skills, despite the current movement towards self-directed research. Joe Boonin (retired) commented on the astonishing range of library sizes, their vitality, and the growth of the New England chapter in general. Gerry Ostrove (retired) reflected that the strong sense of cohesiveness in the New England region has contributed to the continuing strength of the NEMLA chapter. Following the individual reflections of the panelists, there was a discussion on “Librarianship practices, past and present.” Comments ranged from the need for students to still discover physical items on the shelf, the continuing need for controlled vocabulary and the tensions inherent in librarians acting as copyright cops. A slide show of pictures from NEMLA meetings past and present “NEMLA In pictures”, followed. The morning session wrapped up with the announcement of the winner of the new NEMLA logo contest. Karl Munstedt, son of Peter Munstedt (MIT) designed a logo outlining the New England states in green and white with the NEMLA acronym in the foreground. Bravo Karl!

Lunch, committee meetings and tours took up much of the afternoon. The standing committees for Publications, Technical Services, Instruction, Education and Outreach, Programs and Nominations presented a summary to the membership. In particular, Anna Kijas, chair of the Nominating Committee reported that there are two openings on the Board for Vice-Chair/Chair Elect and Member-At-Large, and that nominations need to be submitted by January 15, 2014. This was followed by tours of either the Athenaeum or its Digital Programs and Preservation department. The Athenaeum hosted our closing reception, which ended promptly at 5:00pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Maria Jane Loizou
Member-at-Large
Mark your calendars! The Spring 2014 NEMLA meeting will be held on Friday, March 28 at Brown University, in Providence, Rhode Island.

Brown, founded in 1764, is the seventh-oldest college in the United States and the first member of the Ivy League to admit students of any religious denomination. First named the College of Rhode Island, the school moved to its current location in Providence in 1770, and in 1804 was renamed after donor Nicholas Brown (Class of 1776). Today, the University supports more than 70 academic concentrations and programs, with an enrollment of approximately 6000 undergraduates, 2000 graduate students, and 400 medical school students. Brown is particularly known for its commitment to undergraduate education and the Brown Curriculum, which allows students to create their own paths through the curriculum, rather than relying on strict distribution requirements. In 2010 the Princeton Review named Brown as the #1 College in America for Happiest Students.
The first book known to be part of the Brown collections is Valentin Schindler’s Lexicon Pentaglotten, Hebraicum, Chaldaicum, Syriacum ... Rabbinicum & Arabicum, Hanoviae, 1612, given to the library by College president James Manning in 1767. Today, Brown’s library system comprises 6 branches and over 6.8 million items, more than 3 million in special collections. Its Center for Digital Scholarship supports "scholarly and academic activities that are conducted or enhanced through the use of digital technology or that engage with its effects" by building infrastructure, tools, and digital projects; conducting research and experimental development; and sharing expertise and experience with the Brown community and the wider scholarly world. A project likely to be of interest to NEMLA members is The James Koetting Ghana Field Recording Collection, a digital collection of field notebooks and recordings, photographs, commentary, and other original source materials documenting Ghanaian musical culture of the 1970s.

The Virginia Baldwin Orwig Music Library opened in January, 1988, and unified most of the music collections that had previously been dispersed across campus. The library supports research in areas of music scholarship; the collections hold over 21,000 books, 24,000 scores, 150 periodical titles, 43,000 sound recordings and 1100 videos, in addition to online resources. Its Walter Neiman Archive of Sound Recordings, established in 1984, documents the history of sound recording, performance practice, and musical life in the 20th century. The James T. Koetting Ethnomusicology Archive contains both published and archival material on world music. Other on-campus music collections of note are the large sheet music holdings of the John Hay Library, and the Harris Collection of American Poetry and Plays, with over 17,000 works from the 17th century to the present and a particular focus on African-Americana.

Brown University is conveniently located near bus, Amtrak, and MTBA stations: Kennedy Plaza, the bus hub, and the Providence Train Station, home to Amtrak and Massachusetts Bay Transit Authority (MBTA) service, are both downtown, a short walk or taxi ride away. Brown is easily reachable from I-95 and I-195: see driving directions here. Stay tuned for more information about driving, parking, and lodging as the meeting date approaches! Our special thanks goes to Laura Stokes, Performing Arts Librarian in the Orwig Music Library, for help with local arrangements and hosting NEMLA. The Program Committee for the meeting includes Laura Stokes, Maria Jane Loizou, and Ilana Revkin.

We all look forward to seeing you there!
